

Tim Griffin Discusses Transgender Rights Victory in Minnesota Lawyer Profile

In the News

08.27.2021

Partner Tim Griffin was recently featured by Minnesota Lawyer in its “Breaking the Ice” section. He discussed his reasons for studying law, biggest inspirations and favorite aspects of his practice. Also highlighted is his recent victory in a landmark transgender-rights case, in which the Minnesota Court of Appeals affirmed a transgender student’s right to use a locker room that aligned with his gender identity.

In the article, Tim stated that the case is “probably the most rewarding case personally and professionally” of his career. Tim and Stinson Partner Andy Davis were recently honored with the 2021 Excellence Award from the Hennepin County Bar Association for this victory.

For over 20 years, Tim has defended diverse companies in individual and coordinated actions, arbitrations and regulatory matters in the United States. His experience handling various aspects of mass tort litigation and financial services industry litigation is significant, as is his experience representing parties challenging the constitutionality of government action and securing constitutional protections.

CONTACT

Timothy P. Griffin