

David E. Finck

PARTNER

David is a partner in the Vorys Houston office and a member of the litigation group. His practice is focused on litigation in the construction, oilfield services, real estate and transportation industries. He has experience handling a variety of disputes in the following areas: construction, non-compete/confidential information, real estate, vendor/subcontractor disputes, acquisitions and various other business disputes.

Houston

909 Fannin Street
Suite 2700
Houston, Texas 77010

t: 713.588.7019
dfinck@vorys.com

Practice Areas

Litigation

Real Estate

Education

South Texas College of Law, J.D., summa cum laude, 1995

South Texas Law Review, Editor, 1994 – 1995

Texas A & M University, B.S., 1990

Bar & Court Admissions

Texas

U.S. District Court Northern
District of Texas

U.S. District Court Southern
District of Texas

U.S. District Court Eastern District of Texas

U.S. District Court Western
District of Texas

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth
Circuit

Career highlights include:

- Successfully defended a client in a $43 million arbitration in California involving numerous issues including employee fraud, disputes over contingent payments for the acquisition of an electrical contracting business, complicated financial transactions, and the economics of several proposed power plants in the Midwest
- Successfully defended a power line contractor in state court in California defending a series of wildfire lawsuits where the combined damages exceeded $1.2 billion
- Successfully defended a corporation and a large group of employees against claims of employee raiding, theft of confidential information, tortious interference and related claims
- Successfully representing a client in $33 million arbitration in California involving a contractual right of first refusal for the sale of several landfill-gas-to-energy power plants
- Successfully defended an oilfield service company in a Texas case, in which the plaintiff claimed the company had improperly dumped oilfield waste on its property
- Multiple matters representing general contractors and subcontractors in arbitrations and litigation successfully recovering millions of dollars in base contract and change order claims
- Successfully represented owner against general contractor and subcontractor seeking over $40 million in additional payments
- Successfully defended a subcontractor in an $18 million pipeline construction defect case in Williamson County, Texas

Admitted to practice law only in the states listed above.

Industries

Construction

Energy, Utilities, Oil and Gas

Clerkships

The Honorable Greg Abbott and the Honorable Jack Hightower, Texas Supreme Court, 1995-1996

- Investigated employee fraud and ultimately secured final judgement for hundreds of thousands of dollars against defendant
- Multiple cases collecting unpaid rent on commercial real estate leases
- Successfully defended a client in a $40 million RICO and fraud lawsuit involving the construction of cable television infrastructure in Atlanta, Georgia
- Successfully represented an employer in an employee fraud case in Colorado in which several employees left the company, took confidential information and started a competing business
- Secured pre-judgment recovery of valuable equipment in case where ownership was disputed via Texas writ of sequestration process
- Successfully handled several cases in which a serial plaintiff sued commercial property owners for alleged ADA violations

In 2006, David was recognized as one of Texas' Rising Stars. He is also a Fellow of the Texas and Houston Bar Foundations.

David completed a practical drilling technology course in September 2015, with Murchison Drilling Schools, Inc.

David received his J.D. summa cum laude from the South Texas College of Law, where he was an articles editor of the South Texas Law Review and a member of the Order of Lytae. He received his B.S. from Texas A&M University.