Erin is a partner in the Vorys Cincinnati office and a member of the litigation group. She has ten years of experience litigating complex commercial, general business and employment matters in state and federal courts. She also represents clients in a variety of administrative proceedings. Erin's experience includes matters relating to patent infringement, products liability, shareholder disputes, corporate governance, contracts, banking, insurance, environmental claims, public records, education, disabilities and employment disputes, including harassment, discrimination, retaliation and non-compete agreements.

In addition to her litigation practice, Erin regularly counsels businesses in employment matters, including legal compliance, employee discipline and terminations, review and development of policies and practices, and employment contracts. She regularly performs investigations of and responds to employment administrative charges on behalf of employer clients.

Erin also has significant experience in matters unique to colleges and universities, including faculty, staff and student issues. She has particular expertise in Title IX and is a certified Title IX investigator by the Association of Title IX Administrators.

Erin has been recognized by her peers for her work in litigation and employment, being named repeatedly to Ohio Super Lawyers Rising Stars and The Best Lawyers in America 'Ones to Watch.'
