

Frederick P. Waite

OF COUNSEL

Fred is of counsel in the Vorys Washington, D.C. office and a member of the corporate practice group. His practice is focused on international trade and customs law. Fred represents foreign and domestic manufacturers, trade associations, multinational trading companies and domestic industrial consumers in antidumping, countervailing duty, safeguard and other trade-related proceedings.

Washington

1909 K Street NW
Suite 900
Washington, D.C. 20006-1152

t: 202.467.8852
fpwaite@vorys.com

Practice Areas

Business Organizational Matters,
Including Entity Selection and Capital Structure

Corporate and Business Organizations

Government Relations

International

Education

Harvard Law School, J.D., cum laude, 1971

Princeton University, A.B., cum laude, 1967, Phi Beta Kappa

Australian National University,
Research on Foreign and Defense
Policy, Fulbright Scholarship,
1967-1968

Bar & Court Admissions

District of Columbia

New York

U.S. Supreme Court

Representative transactions include:

- Representing a Canadian producer of an ingredient for the food, pharmaceutical, and cleaning industries in the revocation of an antidumping order on its product.
- Representing successful appellants in two precedent-setting decisions by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit regarding the U.S. International Trade Commission's injury and causation analyses in antidumping and countervailing duty proceedings: Gerald Metals v. United States (1997) and Bratsk Aluminum Smelter v. United States (2006)
- Representing a Greek manufacturer of aluminum products in an antidumping investigation which resulted in a negative dumping determination and dismissal of the case by the U.S. Department of Commerce.
- Representing the Austrian and German subsidiaries of a Swiss-based producer of organic food and pharmaceutical products in the dismissal of an antidumping case as the result of an unanimous vote of the U.S. International Trade Commission
- Representing a U.S. manufacturer of steel products in the first successful investigation of duty evasion conducted by U.S. Customs and Border Protection pursuant to the Enforce and Protect Act (EAPA).
- Representing a French producer of a food additive in an antidumping case which was dismissed by the U.S. International Trade Commission during the preliminary phase of its investigation.

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

U.S. Court of International Trade

U.S. District Court for the Northern District of New York

Admitted to practice law only in the states listed above.

Industries

Manufacturing

Transportation and Logistics

Fred is a member of the District of Columbia Bar, the New York Bar and the Wire Association International. Fred is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and New York.

Fred has spoken at seminars for the steel and metals industries on U.S. antidumping and countervailing duty laws and has presented courses to the importing community on U.S. customs law and procedures.

Fred received his J.D. cum laude from Harvard Law School and his A.B. cum laude from Princeton University where he was Phi Beta Kappa. He was awarded a Fulbright Scholarship and attended the Australian National University, Canberra, Australia.

Military Service

Captain, United States Air Force, Office of The Judge Advocate General, International Law Division and Appellate Government Division, 1972–1976

Honors & Recognitions

Martindale-Hubbell AV Peer Review Rated