

Events

2012 Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration-Generational Conversation

1.31.2012

On January 31, the Columbus Bar Association, in partnership with the Managing Partners Diversity Initiative, will present a "Generational Conversation" as part of its Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration. Members of the John Mercer Langston Bar Association and APABA-CO will moderate a panel discussion about the changing landscape of the legal community, including panelist Carl Smallwood. A reception and a pre-opening tour of the RACE exhibit, which is now on exhibit at the Smithsonian, will follow the panel discussion.

Please visit the CBA's website for additional information or to register.