Vorys attorneys Lisa Reisz, Robin Amicon and Mairi Mull will be speakers at the 2018 OHCA Annual Convention and Expo on May 2-3, 2018.

Lisa's presentation is titled "HIPAA 2018: Compliance Pitfalls, Challenges and Solutions." She will provide an overview of a provider's privacy and security obligations under HIPAA and state law, identify common pitfalls tripping up providers as they use and disclose PHI, and recommend practical solutions to enable providers to better ensure the confidentiality and security of their residents' PHI.

Robin and Mairi's presentation is titled "Hospice in Assisted Living Facilities: Continued Scrutiny and Reform" and will discuss the objectives underlying the 2016 reforms to the hospice reimbursement system, the enforcement priorities foreshadowed by the Office of the Inspector General's concerns, and best practices for providers to stay ahead of further regulatory changes.
