Sachiyo Peterson, a partner in the Vorys Columbus office, will present a webinar on COVID-19 related immigration issues to members of the Japan America Society of Ohio (JASCO) on July 21, 2020 at 10am (ET).

The purpose of this webinar is to provide Japanese companies with information regarding the impact of COVID-19 on the current immigration landscape. Topics to be covered include details of the recent Presidential Proclamation suspending the entry of certain L-1, H-1B, H-2B, and J-1 visa holders, including who is covered, how it impacts them, how it impacts their ability to travel, and who is exempted from the Proclamation; information regarding the limited visa processing options during continued Embassy/Consulate closures; and options to extend visa status from within the United States when travel is not possible.
