Vorys partner Scott Ziance will be a speaker at the Economic Development 411 program, hosted by Columbus 2020 on December 6. His presentation is titled Incentives; The Basics.

Mr. Ziance will discuss the following topics:

- Best practices that communities around the state use to leverage economic development incentives to attract and retain jobs
- Rules and guidelines for many of the economic incentives that are available for communities
- Real world case studies of successes and failures that communities have encountered when providing economic development incentives.
