Vorys attorney Mike Griffaton will be a panel speaker at Government Spotlight: Medical Marijuana hosted by the Columbus Chamber of Commerce on March 14, 2017. This panel will illuminate the issues around the legalization of medical marijuana in Ohio.

Topic discussion will include:

- How to mitigate the risks associated with entering the medical marijuana business or contracting with others in the industry including issues relating to leasing, cash management and investments.
- Information to help businesses understand how the Medical Marijuana Control Program will be implemented and regulated by the State of Ohio
- Implications of medical marijuana legalization in the workplace and what employers need to know to protect their business, employees and customers.
