Anna Sanyal, an associate in the Vorys Columbus office and a member of the finance, energy and real estate group, will participate in a panel session on diversity and inclusion in the workplace. The panel will focus on experiences of women of color working in the utility space and how they found success in situations where they were the only in the room. The Women's International Network of Utility Professionals (WINUP) is an organization dedicated to developing and recognizing professionals involved with utility business trends, issues, products, and services.
