

Events

In-House Essential Conference

Related Attorneys

Mark A. Knueve

John L. Landolfi

Rob Phillips

Related Services

Labor and Employment

Litigation

Technology Transactions

10.15.2015

Vorys and The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law will be presenting a two-day program, In-House Essential Conference on October 15-16, 2015. The program is designed for in-house attorneys interested in executive education training and leadership topics. Program presenters will include experienced in-house counsel, Moritz Law faculty and Vorys attorneys.

Topics the program will cover, include:

- Essential Skills for Successful In-House Lawyers
- A workshop focused on real-world solutions to everyday problems in-house counsel encounter
- Developing Into a Lawyer-Leader
- Security Serenity: How to Survive a Security Audit
- Crisis Preparedness/Management for In-House Counsel
- Strategies for Addressing Everyday and Emerging Employment Issues
- Mock Internal Investigation
- Managing Compliance and Privacy Risks

To learn more or RSVP, click here. If you have questions, please contact Kayla Allen.

This course has been approved by the Supreme Court of Ohio Commission on Continuing Legal Education for 10.50 total CLE hours instruction.