Vorys Partner Suzanne Scrutton and Vorys Health Care Advisors President Maureen Corcoran will be participating in a panel at the Institute on Medicare and Medicaid Payment Issues hosted by the American Health Lawyers Association on April 15, 2016. Maureen will be a panelist and Suzanne a moderator for the program titled "Value-Based Purchasing for Behavioral Health Services: Models and Trends." The presentation will provide an overview of Medicaid program initiative arrangements, address challenges and successes and discuss the newly published compendium of state Medicaid value-based purchasing models from the National Association of Medicaid Directors.
