Internet Defamation: How to Protect Your Company's Brand in the Digital World

5.29.2015

Vorys attorneys Jonathan Ishee and Paul Kerlin will be presenting a webinar titled "Internet Defamation: How to Protect Your Company's Brand in the Digital World," hosted by the Texas Medical Group Management Association on May 29, 2015. The webinar will discuss what healthcare providers need to know about internet defamation, social media and consumer review sites, why providers should pay attention to the sites and what to do when patients post negative or defamatory comments/reviews from both a public relations and legal standpoint.
