Join Vorys for a complimentary teleseminar on Monday, July 2 from 2:30- 3:30 p.m. (ET).

During the teleseminar, a panel of Vorys attorneys and members of Vorys Health Care Advisors will address a number of critical questions surrounding the U.S. Supreme Court's decision on the Affordable Care Act.

Employers, health care providers and other webinar participants will learn more about what the Supreme Court's decision means and what will happen next with major provisions of the law.

The panel will be moderated by Ross Bridgman, chair of the health care group and a partner in the Vorys Columbus office. Panelists will include:

Matt Albers: Matt is of counsel in the Vorys Cleveland office and focuses his practice on all aspects of health care law. Matt, a former associate general counsel for University Hospitals Health System in Cleveland, has spoken widely regarding the Affordable Care Act and its possible outcomes.

Maureen Corcoran: Maureen is president of Vorys Health Care Advisors, which advises health care providers, business decision makers, professional associations and other stakeholders on the changing health care environment. Prior to joining VHCA, Maureen was deputy director of the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, where she directed all policy and program initiatives for the state of Ohio's Medicaid program.

Jolie Havens: Jolie is a partner in the firm's Columbus office specializing in health care compliance and reimbursement and employee health and welfare benefits compliance. Jolie has spoken and published both nationally and locally on compliance with and legal implications of the Affordable Care Act as related to health care providers and employers across all industries.

Daphne Saneholtz: Daphne is a senior advisor with Vorys Health Care Advisors. Prior to joining VHCA, Daphne held various roles at the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services within the Office of Ohio Health Plans and the Office of Legislation.

To RSVP or for more information, contact Cindy Embry at ckembry@vorys.com.

Login information will be provided before the webinar.

This program is pending approval by the Supreme Court of Ohio Commission on Continuing Legal Education for .75 total CLE hours instruction.
