Events

What Can (and Can't) Be Done?: Best Practices for Trustees Who Suspect Incapacity of Settlor, Co-Trustee, or Beneficiary

Related Attorneys

Elizabeth E.W. Weinewuth

Related Services

Litigation

Trusts, Estates and Wealth Transfer

9.24.2019

Beth Weinewuth and Colleen Laux, attorneys in the Vorys trust, estates and wealth transfer group, will present a complimentary webinar on September 24, 2019 on the best practices for trustees who suspect incapacity of a settlor, co-trustee or beneficiary. As the population ages and dementia diagnoses increase each year, trustees routinely face situations where they suspect incapacity of key stakeholders. Is the current trustee incapacitated? What duties does a successor trustee now owe to that individual and to the beneficiaries? What about a co-trustee whose capacity is in question? A beneficiary?

Click here to register for this complimentary webinar.