Vorys IP attorneys will be hosting a webinar titled, Year in Review: Our Top IP Developments of 2017 on January 31, 2018, from 12-1:00 p.m. Iona Kaiser, Bill Oldach, Tanya Curcio and Laura Geyer will be presenting. Topics covered will include updates for patent, trademark, copyright and relevant litigation, including:

- As applied to domestic corporations, residence in § 1400(b) refers only to the State of Incorporation
- Ban on "offensive" trademark registrations ruled unconstitutional
- "Google" is not generic for searching
- Laches cannot be invoked as a defense against a claim for damages brought within §286's six-year limitations period
- Still no registration for marijuana-related goods/services
- A patentee's decision to sell a product exhausts all of its patent rights in that item, regardless of any restrictions the patentee purports to impose.
- Adult themed play about the life of Cindy Lou Who after her encounter with the Grinch who stole Christmas deemed fair use
