SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT | 1.29.2025 | 12:00 P.M.

2024 saw a significant increase in Medicaid Managed Care post-payment recovery efforts and we see no signs of a slowdown in 2025. This discussion will provide an update of what providers can expect when a MCO comes knocking at their door. We will explain the overpayment recovery process from start to finish, highlight best practices for responding to a request for records and provide strategies to dispute an overpayment finding.
