Frank Zonars, a partner in the Vorys Columbus office and member of the corporate group, has been named the chair of the Thomson Reuters Institute's 6th Annual Midwest M&A / Private Equity Forum. According to Thompson Reuters, the forum is the premier gathering of regional deals professionals and offers timely guidance on key trends and developments impacting a dynamic U.S. middle market. The forum will take place in Columbus on December 7th.

In addition to serving as the forum's chair, Frank will join a panel discussion. The panel is titled "Promise & Possibility: The State of the M&A Market" and will explore the shifting realities of the US middle market amid protracted change.
