SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT | 11.19.2025

Bruce Paige, a partner in the Vorys Columbus office and the chair of the firm's M&A practice group, will take part in a panel titled "The AI Advantage in M&A" on November 19 at Marriott Columbus OSU. The presentation will be hosted as part of the Association for Corporate Growth Columbus's November Breakfast.

The panel will examine the transformative impact of AI on mergers and acquisitions, highlighting current applications and the technology's future potential. The discussion will include how AI is enhancing due diligence and efficiency, streamlining contract drafting, reshaping staffing needs and addressing the limitations professionals must consider. Bruce will be joined by Ethan Barteck, a senior analyst at Fifth Third Bank and Braden Lambros, a partner at Heartland Ventures.
