Alycia Broz, a partner in the Vorys Columbus office and a member of the litigation group, was selected as one of the 12 Women WELDing the Way honorees for 2017. Each year, Women for Economic and Leadership Development (WELD) recognizes a diverse group of women in the central Ohio community who are high impact leaders within their organizations, support the leadership development of other women, give time, talent and resources to their community, and invest in the growth of women-owned businesses. The honorees will be profiled in a calendar - one honoree per month.

In her practice, Broz represents companies, individuals and universities in a wide variety of complex litigation matters. She has significant experience in securities, antitrust, commercial, class action, employment and civil rights litigation. Outside of her work at the firm, Broz has served on the board and the executive committee of the YWCA Columbus since 2009 and has served as the board chair since 2014.
