

Ford Talks about NLRB Regional Director's Decision on Northwestern Football Players with News 92FM

Related Attorneys

Jackie Ford

Related Services

Employment Counseling

Labor and Employment

NEWS | 3.31.2014

Jackie Ford, a partner in the Columbus and Houston offices and a member of the labor and employment group, spoke with News 92FM Houston about a recent decision from an NLRB regional director. In his decision, the regional director found that college football players at Northwestern University, who receive scholarships, are employees and therefore are entitled to the right to organize.

Click here to listen to a clip of the interview.