Jackie Ford, a partner in the Vorys Columbus and Houston offices, was a guest on Good Day Columbus. During the show, she discussed things that employers need to keep in mind during March Madness. She indicated that employers should be cautious against tossing a new computer-use policy at workers as the NCAA tourney begins. She said that rather, this is a good time for business owners and managers to review their policies on computer use and workplace productivity in general. Then remind workers of those policies and expectations.
