Jacob Mahle, an associate in the Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP Cincinnati office, has been selected to join Cincinnati Academy of Leadership for Lawyers (CALL) Class XVII.

Fewer than 30 lawyers are chosen to join this prominent group each year. Created in 1996, CALL is a joint project of the Cincinnati Bar Association and the University of Cincinnati College of Law. CALL seeks to enhance the leadership skills of selected local attorneys, to inspire those attorneys to lead the profession ethically, professionally, and with a high regard for community service, and to improve the image and standards of lawyers and the legal profession.

Mahle has been named an Ohio Super Lawyers Rising Star each year since 2009, the last three in business litigation. His practice focuses complex commercial litigation, including False Claims Act defense and government investigations, intellectual property litigation, class actions, and other commercial disputes.

Mahle is a member of the Ohio State and Cincinnati Bar Associations. He received his J.D. summa cum laude from the University of Cincinnati College of Law.
