

Miller Appointed to 2015 Texas Minority Counsel Program Steering Committee

NEWS | 1.16.2015

Beau A. Miller, of counsel in the Vorys Houston office and a member of the litigation group, was recently appointed to the 2015 Texas Minority Counsel Program (TMCP) Steering Committee. The TMCP is a client development, networking and CLE event for diverse attorneys in Texas. It was created in 1993 with the mission of increasing opportunities for minority and women attorneys who provide legal services to corporate and government clients, and to expose those organizations to the talent found in the minority and woman lawyer community.

Miller's practice is focused on commercial and products liability matters. He has served as first-chair in jury trials, and has experience in briefing and oral arguments, development of litigation strategies, mediation, and all other pretrial, trial, and post-trial matters.
