Bruce P. Paige, a partner in the Columbus office of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, has been named to the Columbus Business First Forty under 40 class of 2011. Paige joins twenty previous winners from Vorys over the past 17 years.

Paige is a member of the corporate and finance group. His practice focuses on representing both public and private companies in mergers and acquisitions. He also regularly assists clients in the organization of private companies and the negotiation and preparation of corporate and commercial agreements. He has been placed onsite with multiple clients, including two of Ohio's largest public companies and a large local health care provider, to assist their in-house legal team for extended periods of time.

Paige is a member of the Leadership Columbus class of 2011. He also is a member of the Board of Directors of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Ohio, where he currently serves as both the Secretary and a member of the Executive Committee. Paige has also dedicated significant time to Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Ohio as a "Big Brother" and mentor for the past six years.

Paige received his J.D. with honors from The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law, his M.B.A. from The Ohio State University Fisher College of Business and his B.A. summa cum laude from Ohio University, where he was Phi Beta Kappa.
