Evelyn Lundberg Stratton, who prior to joining Vorys served for 16 years on the Ohio Supreme Court, received the AMVETS Past State Department Commanders' Civil Servant of the Year Award for her work on behalf of veterans. The award was presented to Stratton by the AMVETS Department of Ohio for her advocacy related to the development of veterans' courts, which assist returning veterans with post traumatic stress and other issues that may lead them to criminal activity.

At Vorys, Stratton counsels clients on variety of practice areas, including health care, litigation and appellate work. She also assists Vorys Health Care Advisors, a wholly owned subsidiary of the firm that helps health care providers, business decision makers, professional associations and other stakeholders deal with the challenges of a complex, rapidly changing state and federal health care environment. Stratton also currently serves in a leadership capacity at the Ohio Military and Veterans Legal Assistance Program, which connects veterans and military families to a statewide system of referrals to pro bono lawyers, bar associations, legal aid and law school clinics.

About Vorys: Vorys was established in 1909 and has grown to be one of the largest Ohio-based law firms with nearly 375 attorneys in six offices in Columbus, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Akron, Ohio; Washington, D.C.; and Houston, Texas.
