Jill Tangeman, a partner in the Vorys Columbus office and a member of the finance, energy and real estate group, was quoted in a Columbus Dispatch story regarding new extended-stay hotel rules adopted by the Columbus City Council.

The story states:

“Columbus has 97 extended-stay hotels. Existing extended-stay hotels will not be affected by the changes, but hotel owners who want to convert their properties to extended-stay would have to comply with the new code.

Jill Tangeman, an attorney for Metro Development, one of the major developers in the extended-stay market here, said she is not aware of any opposition to the legislation.”
