We're excited to return for the second season of the Vorys IP podcast. The 2022 season will feature discussions with various attorneys and patent practitioners who will shed light on specific aspects of intellectual property law.

In the first episode of season two, host Jeremy Harrison is joined by Maryellen Feehery Hank, of counsel in the Vorys Pittsburgh office. Jeremy and Maryellen discuss various aspects of IP due diligence such as the importance of involving IP counsel and the handling of trade secrets and legal opinions throughout the process. Maryellen also gives advice on how to make IP portfolios more appealing to potential purchasers or investors.
