

Vorys Partner Receives 2009 Adjunct Faculty Teaching Excellence Award

Related Services

Litigation

Trusts, Estates and Wealth Transfer

NEWS | 11.9.2009

Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP is pleased to announce that Daniel J. Buckley, partner in the Cincinnati office, has received the 2009 Adjunct Faculty Teaching Excellence Award from the University of Cincinnati College of Law.

Students of the college nominated and the Alumni Association unanimously voted to recognize Mr. Buckley for his outstanding teaching and service to the College of Law.

Dean and Nippert Professor of Law, Louis D. Bilonis says, "The College of Law could not hope for a better example of the kind of graduate we strive to produce, the type of adjunct faculty member we strive to attract, or a more impressive role model for ourselves and for our students."

Mr. Buckley is a trial attorney in the litigation group at Vorys, where he practices in the areas of business litigation, complex litigation and class actions.