

Vorys Receives Greater Columbus Arts Council's 2012 Community Arts Partnership Award

NEWS | 10.22.2012

Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease has received the Greater Columbus Arts Council's (GCAC) 2012 Community Arts Partnership Award for a medium sized business. The award program, now in its 29th year, recognizes crucial contributions to the arts including financial support, non-cash contributions, volunteer involvement and board participation.

Vorys was selected because it has been a tireless supporter of arts initiatives in central Ohio. Vorys was nominated by the Wexner Center for the Arts. In the nomination the Wexner Center said that "whether serving on organizations' boards of directors or volunteering for individual events, Vorys and its partners, associates, and staff have made a commitment to the area's nonprofit organizations, extending its generosity with monetary contributions as well as with pro bono legal work."

To read more about the Community Arts Partnership Award, visit the GCAC website.

About Vorys: Vorys was established in 1909 and currently has nearly 375 attorneys in six offices in Columbus, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Akron, Ohio; Washington, D.C.; and Houston, Texas. Vorys currently ranks as one of the 200 largest law firms in the United States according to American Lawyer magazine.