Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP is pleased to announce that the firm's trusts, estates and wealth transfer practice received a Band 1 ranking, the highest honor, in the 2020 edition of the High Net Worth Guide publication of Chambers and Partners. Chambers researchers conducted in-depth research and ranked the leading law firms and attorneys in the area of private wealth management. Vorys is one of only four law firms in Ohio ranked in Band 1.

Individual lawyers were ranked in their practice area on the basis of their legal knowledge and experience, their ability, their effectiveness and their client service. Karen Moore was ranked in Band 1. Vorys Partners John Furniss, Michael Schwartz and Dave Swift were also ranked in the guide.

About the Vorys Trusts, Estates and Wealth Transfer Practice: Vorys lawyers provide counsel to individuals, families and fiduciaries on all aspects of the transfer and preservation of wealth. We plan and prepare for the future transfer of wealth, we carry out and administer our clients' intentions as set forth in their written estate plans, and we represent our clients in litigation to preserve and protect their interests. Our clients include high net worth individuals, young families just beginning to plan for the future, individual and corporate fiduciaries, and all types of charitable entities and foundations. Each client's situation is unique, and each client has different goals and objectives. Our lawyers are highly specialized and have the knowledge and experience necessary to identify and fulfill the individual needs of each client.

About Vorys: Vorys was established in 1909 and has grown to be one of the largest law firms in the U.S. with nearly 375 attorneys in seven offices in Columbus, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Akron, Ohio; Washington, D.C.; Houston, Texas; and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
