Kari Coniglio, a partner in the Vorys Cleveland office, has been named to the 2024 Crain's Cleveland Business "Notable Women in Law" list. She is one of only 34 northeast Ohio women attorneys selected for the list. According to Crain's, the recipients "are making their mark in and out of the courtroom" and "lend their time and expertise to countless nonprofit boards in the region."

The article profiling Coniglio states:

Kari Coniglio has thrived at Vorys' Cleveland office in her work representing debtors, committees and financial institutions. Coniglio's practice also focuses on adversary proceedings around collections, creditors rights, receiverships, foreclosures and reorganizations.

Among her biggest accomplishments was obtaining a jury verdict for the full amount of damages sought in a complaint, along with $150,000 in punitive damages, the nomination said.
