

Smith Appointed to PNC Bank's Community Advisory Council

Related Attorneys

Mo Smith

Related Services

Real Estate

Real Estate Finance

NEWS | 8.1.2022

Vorys is pleased to share that Mo Smith, partner in the Vorys Washington, D.C. office, was appointed as a member of PNC Bank's new national Community Advisory Council. The council will provide ongoing guidance for PNC's community lending, investment and service efforts. The council's 17 members represent a broad range of expertise in community investment lending and services, small business development, and neighborhood revitalization from 11 states.

Read more about the council here.