Vorys is pleased to announce that Sachiyo Peterson, a partner in the Vorys Columbus office and a member of the immigration group, has been selected to be a member of the 2024 class of Fellows, and is participating in a landmark program created for mid-career attorneys by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) to identify, train, and advance the next generation of leaders in the legal profession.

“Amid the challenges to DEI, we are once again excited to be able to connect high-potential attorneys from diverse backgrounds with unmatched year-long programs focused on leadership and relationship building,” said LCLD President Robert J. Grey, Jr.

Additionally, Matt Gutierrez, an associate in the Vorys Columbus office and a member of the corporate group, was selected as a 2024 LCLD Pathfinder. The LCLD Pathfinder program trains early-career attorneys in critical career development strategies including leadership and the building of professional networks.

About LCLD: Founded in 2009, LCLD is a growing organization providing access to more than 285 corporate chief legal officers and law firms who are personally committed to creating a more diverse and inclusive legal profession. To learn more about LCLD, click here.
