Vorys is pleased to announce that Theron Anderson, an associate in the Cincinnati office and Antonia Lluberés, an associate in the Washington D.C. office, have been selected by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) for its Pathfinder program.

According to the LCLD, the Pathfinder program “provides high-potential, early-career attorneys from diverse backgrounds with the opportunity to learn from top leaders in the legal profession while gaining foundational leadership skills and relationship-building resources.”

The seven-month program includes professional-development curriculum – focusing on topics such as leadership skills, leveraging professional networks and career development strategies – as well as numerous opportunities to network with their peers.

About Vorys: Vorys was established in 1909 and currently has nearly 375 attorneys in 10 offices in Ohio, Washington, D.C., Texas, Pennsylvania, California, London and Berlin. Vorys currently ranks as one of the 200 largest law firms in the United States according to American Lawyer magazine. Learn more at vorys.com.

About LCLD: LCLD is an organization of more than 400 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners—the leadership of the profession—who have pledged themselves to creating a truly diverse U.S. legal profession. To learn more about LCLD, click here.
