Vorys is proud to announce that the firm was included as one of the top law firms for district court cases in the 2024 edition of Patexia Inc.'s Patent Litigation Intelligence Report. Patexia evaluates all district court patent litigation cases to find the top attorneys and law firms for patent litigation based on their activity and performance before the district courts. The report covers 18,191 district court patent cases, 17,285 unique patents, 3,309 law firms and 15,808 attorneys.

The Vorys IP team includes many experienced litigators who try cases to decision, and represent clients before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and the International Trade Commission (ITC). The team's experience in federal courts across the country ensures that we can handle any patent litigation matter for our clients on the plaintiff or defense side. Further, by working with the firm's in-house eDiscovery and litigation technology team, Vorys lawyers are able to streamline the discovery process, lowering risk and cost to the client while insuring greater accuracy and efficiency.

About Patexia: Patexia is a community of tens of thousands of IP professionals worldwide, committed to bringing transparency, efficiency, and optimal outcomes to the IP world. Founded in 2010, Patexia has evolved beyond algorithms and databases to build the world's largest online IP community.

About Vorys: Vorys was established in 1909 and currently has nearly 375 attorneys in 10 offices in Ohio, Washington, D.C., Texas, Pennsylvania, California, London and Berlin. Vorys currently ranks as one of the 200 largest law firms in the United States according to American Lawyer magazine.
