Kim Beis, Stephen Benson, Mike Messinger and Kal Shami, partners in the firm's intellectual property (IP) group, were all included in the 2024 edition of the IAM Patent 1000.

According to IAM, the IAM Patent 1000: The World's Leading Patent Professionals "is commonly regarded as the definitive 'go-to' resource for those seeking to identify world-class, private practice patent expertise as well as leading expert witnesses in the U.S." IAM Patent 1000 honorees qualify when they receive sufficient positive feedback from peers and clients.

Our nationally recognized IP practice helps clients create and defend IP assets in furtherance of their key business goals. These goals can range from maintaining exclusivity, to building the next iconic brand, to attracting investment. We understand how a company's IP assets can drive and support those goals. We work with innovative start-ups, multinational corporations, universities, public and private companies, and other IP-driven organizations. These clients come in all sizes and span a myriad of industries, including chemistry, biosciences, nanotechnology, electrical engineering, food and beverage, medical device, software, artificial intelligence, blockchain, universities and more.
