The Law of Lawyer's Liability

Elizabeth Mykytiuk authored the District of Columbia chapter of The Law of Lawyer's Liability. The book was released in 2012 by First Chair Press and the American Bar Association (ABA).

According to the ABA: "This guide provides a state-by-state review of laws in each state pertaining to the laws of lawyer liability. Each chapter is devoted to the law of each state, written by lawyers in that particular state for easy comparison. Whether a lawyer is involved in litigating legal malpractice actions or merely wants to understand more about these matters, this book is intended to serve as a resource to how the law varies state by state."
