CLIENT ALERT | 10.8.2020

As the November 3, 2020 General Election draws near and political activity is heating up, below is a brief reminder regarding political contribution limits and restrictions applicable to federal and Ohio elections.

Federal Candidate Elections

Individuals are permitted to make political contributions to candidates for President, the United States Senate, and the United States House of Representatives. The maximum contribution limit for these candidates is $2,800 per election period (primary and general election).

For-profit and non-profit corporations are prohibited from making direct political contributions to candidates for federal office.

However, corporations are permitted to sponsor a federal Political Action Committee (PAC) to make contributions to federal candidates.

A federal PAC that has achieved multicandidate status (registration for at least six months; contributions from at least 51 persons; contributions to at least five federal candidates) is permitted to contribute up to $5,000 per election period to federal candidates.

Federal PACs that have not yet achieved multicandidate status are permitted to contribute up to $2,800 per election period to federal candidates.

Ohio Judicial Candidate Elections

Judicial candidate campaign committees in Ohio are subject to separate contribution limits and campaign finance restrictions established and governed by the Ohio Supreme Court.

For the 2020 general election period, individuals are permitted to contribute up to $3,800 to the campaign committee of a candidate for the Ohio Supreme Court, up to $1,300 to the campaign committee of a candidate for the Court of Appeals, and up to $600 to the campaign committee of a candidate for the Court of Common Pleas, Municipal Court, or County Court.

“Organizations” are also permitted to make political contributions to judicial candidates in Ohio. For purposes of Ohio judicial candidate elections, “Organizations” permitted to directly contribute to judicial candidates include partnerships, limited liability companies, professional associations, law firms, and PACs. However, for-profit and non-profit corporations are prohibited from making direct political contributions to judicial candidates in Ohio.

For the 2020 general election period, Organizations are permitted to contribute up to $7,000 to the campaign committee of a candidate for the Ohio Supreme Court, up to $3,800 to the campaign committee of a candidate for the Court of Appeals, and up to $3,800 to the campaign committee of a candidate for the Court of Common Pleas, Municipal Court, or County Court.

If there is a contested primary, donors are allowed to make contributions up to these limits for both the primary campaign and the general election campaign.
