

Publications

Labor and Employment Alert: Supreme Court Ruling Offers Employers Hints for Searching Employee Electronic Communications

Related Attorneys

Jackie Ford

Allen S. Kinzer

Related Services

Employee Benefits and Executive
Compensation

CLIENT ALERT | 6.23.2010

The United States Supreme Court recently held that a California city did not violate a SWAT officer's Fourth Amendment privacy rights when it examined sexually explicit text messages the officer sent and received on a city-issued pager. The Court's ruling suggests that it will be sympathetic to employers who promulgate clear policies and have valid work-related reasons to review employee emails, text messages, and other communications.

Click on the link below to download the Client Alert which discusses these employment-related issues.