CLIENT ALERT | 10.13.2010

The 2010 midterm elections are just days away. Many states allow employees to take time off, sometimes with pay, so that they can vote. The chart below provides a general overview of each state's law as to time off, pay, and what, if any, advance notice is required before taking time off to vote. If you have specific questions about the law in any state, please contact your Vorys attorney.

Click on the link below to download the Labor and Employment Alert which discusses this law.
