

Publications

Labor and Employment Alert: NLRB Files Complaint Against Company for Firing Worker Over Facebook Post

Related Services

Labor and Employment

CLIENT ALERT | 11.18.2010

The Hartford Regional office of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) recently announced that it will pursue a complaint against American Medical Response of Connecticut, Inc. for allegedly terminating an employee because she posted negative comments about her supervisor on her Facebook page.

Click on the link below to download the Labor and Employment Alert which discusses this filing.