

Publications

ORRI “Anti-Washout” Provision Not Binding on Lease Assignees

Related Attorneys

Gregory D. Russell

Related Services

Environmental Litigation, Dispute
Resolution and Crisis
Management

Litigation

Related Industries

Energy, Utilities, Oil and Gas

AUTHORED ARTICLE | 2.10.2023

Greg Russell, partner in the Vorys Columbus office, authored an article titled, "ORRI “Anti-Washout” Provision Not Binding on Lease Assignees" that was featured in the 4th issue of the Oil & Gas E-Report. The article summarizes the case of Marquette ORRI Holdings, LLC v. Ascent Resources-Utica, LLC, which "addressed whether assignees of a leasehold interest were bound by the extension and renewal clause included in a prior assignment of an overriding royalty interest in the assigned lease."

Read the full article here.