

TOP 100 LAWYERS 2025

Ranked in Corporate/M&A and Tax Categories

CLARA KRIVOY

Partner and Chair of the firm's Latin America Practice
White and Williams

Clara Krivoy is Partner and Chair of the Latin America and Blockchain & Digital Assets Practices at White and Williams, which she joined in June 2025 after nearly a year at PAG Law.

Clara Krivoy, White and Williams, was ranked in the corporate/M&A and tax categories of the 2025 Top 100 Lawyers ranking from Latinvex.

A recognized international lawyer, she focuses on cross-border transactions, regulatory compliance, and dispute resolution involving Latin America, the Caribbean, Spain, and Portugal, as well as the rapidly evolving Web3 ecosystem and digital assets space.

Krivoy advises companies, family offices, sovereign entities, financial institutions, and investors on navigating multi-jurisdictional operations across a broad range of industries and areas of law, including mergers and acquisitions, capital markets, debt and equity offerings, restructurings, joint ventures, private equity, venture capital, structuring and development of new ventures, corporate governance, tax planning, regulatory compliance, internal investigations, and cross-border arbitration and litigation.

In the digital space, she counsels clients operating or seeking to operate on the blockchain and in establishing tokenized ecosystems. Her clients include fintech companies, DLT platforms, governments, and other market participants innovating across Web3 and decentralized finance. She advises on compliance frameworks, corporate and securities matters, exempt offerings, listings, licensing, regulatory compliance, intellectual property, global tax planning, employment, payment systems, privacy policies, and cybersecurity.

Prior to PAG Law, Krivoy served as Head of Ibero-American Private Clients at Brown Rudnick and Chadbourne & Parke.

LATINVEX RANKING

The editorial and research staff of Latinvex has selected the leading attorneys from international law firms that are involved in the legal business in Latin America.

The 13th annual ranking includes 100 attorneys from 58 law firms — major firms as well as boutique firms — and spans 15 categories, including arbitration & litigation, banking & finance, capital markets, corporate/M&A, energy, FCPA & fraud and project finance.

The criteria used was a combination of factors, including recent track record on major deals and business, prominence of firm in Latin America and rankings by third parties such as Chambers and Partners, Legal 500 and LSEG.

Latinvex used data from our annual survey of international firms as well as publicly-available information.
