

An Easy Financing Source Pushes Some Small Businesses Into Bankruptcy

The Wall Street Journal
2.19.24

Small businesses struggling to find funding have turned to alternative options such as merchant cash advances in recent years. Such deals have threatened the existence of some of these mom-and-pop operations according to the The Wall Street Journal.

Heidi Sorvino, Managing Partner, New York City Office, discusses the use of merchant cash advances and the problems they create for small businesses with The Wall Street Journal in their recent article entitled "An Easy Financing Source Pushes Some Small Businesses Into Bankruptcy."
