Heidi J. Sorvino, Chair of White and Williams' Financial Restructuring and Bankruptcy Practice and Managing Partner of the New York Office, and Associates, Andrew E. Arthur and Michael Ingrassia, recently co-authored "The $7.5 Million Subchapter V Debt Limit Should be Reinstated," published by the American Bankruptcy Institute Journal. The article detailed a few reasons why restructuring professionals have urged Congress to reinstate the elevated debt limit and the benefits that could stem from this increase.
