OVERVIEW

Frank Perch has a wide range of experience as a business litigator and legal advisor to insurers, commercial landlords, and lenders. He is skilled in insightfully analyzing complex coverage issues and counseling insurer clients on effectively handling challenging claims both in and out of litigation. Whether the claim is a moderately sized first-party claim or a mass tort or environmental claim of national scope, Frank provides practical advice on all aspects of coverage disputes, including evaluating coverage positions, negotiating pre-litigation settlements, prosecution, defense and mediation of declaratory judgment actions, and defense of bad faith claims.

As a result of his experience in both insurance coverage and bankruptcy, Frank is able to address the unique problems that exist when coverage issues arise in the context of bankruptcy. He has represented insurers in asbestos bankruptcies and has served as an expert for an insurer on mass tort bankruptcy issues.

Frank is also experienced in representing financial institutions, investors, asset purchasers, landlords, vendors, and creditors' committees in bankruptcy proceedings and out-of-court restructurings. Frank counsels clients on preserving rights and maximizing outcomes in bankruptcies. He has represented Chapter 11 debtors and confirmed Plans of Reorganization, and he has both prosecuted and defended preference and fraudulent transfer litigation. He has spoken on bankruptcy issues at the Pennsylvania Bar Institute, the National Bankruptcy Training Institute of the U.S. Department of Justice, the Practising Law Institute, the Coastal Bankruptcy Law Institute of Savannah, Georgia, and the Emory Bankruptcy Developments Journal Symposium.
