

Madison Farley

Associate

Philadelphia, PA

t: 215.864.6378

f: 215.789.7597

OVERVIEW

Madison Farley is an Associate with the Commercial Litigation Department at White and Williams. A graduate of Emory University School of Law, Madison was Director-in-Chief of Emory's Moot Court Society; she also served as a competitor and coach for the Irving R. Kaufman Memorial Securities Law Moot Court Competition and was Communications Chair of the Emory Public Interest Committee.

In addition to serving as a Summer Associate with the firm, Madison interned with the United States District Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Prior to attending law school, she worked as Manager for North America Private Equity at Third Bridge Group Limited, a global investment research firm.

RECOGNITION AND INVOLVEMENT

Madison is committed to public service and has worked with several nonprofit organizations focused on advancing women's and children's issues, including CARE, Seeds of Peace, Outward Bound Center for Peacebuilding, and the Aloha Foundation.

EDUCATION

Emory University, J.D., 2025

Barnard College, Columbia University, BA, 2016