OVERVIEW

Michael Rennock is a partner in the Corporate and Securities Practice, based in the New York office. He has more than 35 years of diverse transactional and finance experience. Michael's practice includes advising buyers and sellers in all aspects of mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and divestitures, as well as handling securities offerings, venture financings, corporate governance, and private equity matters. He represents corporations, limited liability companies and others in capital markets and financing transactions, including initial public offerings and secondary offerings, venture capital and private equity financings, high-yield and convertible debt financings, private investments in public equity (PIPES), Rule 144A and Reg S offerings, and traditional private placements. His finance experience also includes recapitalizations, secured and unsecured borrowings, and project financings.

Michael serves clients across a variety of industries—including technology, telecommunications, healthcare, education, retail, defense, finance, manufacturing, energy, and transportation.
