

US-China Relations Under the Biden Administration

The World Trade Center of Greater Philadelphia (Virtual Meeting)
2.18.21

How will Biden's Administration differ from previous administrations and what will this mean for your business? Gary Biehn, Partner and Chair of the International Group and Chairman of the World Trade Center of Greater Philadelphia, moderates a discussion with China expert Anna Ashton on the future of US-China Relations under a Biden Administration.

Anna Ashton, Vice President of Government Affairs for the U.S.-China Business Council, has briefed the Vice President, Secretary of Defense, and other high ranking military and government officials on China over her tenure. Recently, she has spoken with a number of publications including Bloomberg, The Wall Street Journal and BARRON'S on US-China Relations.

The program is exclusive to the World Trade Center of Greater Philadelphia's China Club.

KEY ATTORNEYS

Gary P. Biehn

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate and Securities

International

